SKILLS

A Happy Cutting Room is an Efficient Cutting Room.

- Working with me is like exploring a mystery island with a friend. It's full of discovery and leaves no stone unturned. That's how I bring your vision to life.
- My approach is simple: character first. Building strong characters through tight plots is my forte. Your characters aren't along for the ride. They're driving.

Strong Editor's Cuts = Exceptional Locked Cuts.

- I deliver ready-for-air first cuts. I don't assemble footage, I dictate it. Shot-or-not, those important story moments are there. You start with what works and end with what works best.
- It's on the page. I don't just read your script, I study it. Between the lines. I learn your language and cut toward your underlying intent. You're not building from scratch. You're refining nuance.

Protecting Your Time. Shaping Your Story.

- Go ahead, dig in. I've worked against air dates for over a decade and address notes quickly. This gives you more time to explore the corners of your story with me.
- Implementing notes on-the-fly is my specialty. Finishing your note before you finish your email to the producing-director is a game I love to win!
